How to display sources in your bibliography

It is important to cite sources of information that you use for school reports and term papers. In order to make it easy for you, we designed this brochure to identify the correct way of recording bibliographic material in an acceptable style for most major types of sources that you will be using.

Keep this brochure as a READY REFERENCE for all your bibliographic needs. If you have further questions, ask a librarian to direct you to the various style guides currently on our shelves.
